

ACCEPTABLE IDENTIFYING DOCUMENTS THAT CONSTITUTE PROOF OF RESIDENCE

Used for registration of:

First-time voters who register by mail
Electors registering in the Clerk's Office after the close of registration
Electors registering on election day

The document provided must contain a complete name, including both the first and last name; and a current and complete residential address, including a numbered street address, if any, and the name of a municipality.

IDENTIFYING DOCUMENTS ARE LIMITED TO:

- A current and valid Wisconsin driver's license
- A current and valid Wisconsin identification card
- Any other official identification card or license issued by a Wisconsin governmental body
- Any employer-issued photo I.D. card, issued in the normal course of business (not including a business card).
- A real estate tax bill or receipt for the current year or the year preceding the date of the election
- A utility bill (e.g. gas, electric, cable TV or telephone) for the period commencing not earlier than 90 days before election day
- A current residential lease which is effective for a period that includes election day (Cannot be used by first-time voters who register by mail)
- A university, college, or technical college fee card or I.D. card bearing a photo of the cardholder (May be used even if the card does not contain the cardholder's address, if the educational institution provides a certified student list for use at the polling place)
- A bank statement
- A paycheck or a government check or other document issued by a unit of government

Forms which have an expiration date must be valid on election day in order to constitute acceptable proof of residence for that election

Rev. 8/07