If you answered YES to any of these questions a FREE, Explore Starting Your Own Business, workshop is just what you need, just when you need it! Explore starting a small business and learn about the 3 critical things you MUST do to launch and sustain a business. Whether you want to start or currently operate a part-time, home-based business, a micro-business, a small business or an entrepreneurial firm this session will provide you with the information you need.

Learn about resources available and why a business plan is essential to your success. Learn from successful, local, entrepreneurs, small business owners and home-based, "solopreneurs" who share their insight. Plus, you'll get a chance to meet more people like you during the networking break. You will leave this energizing, uplifting workshop knowing how the FVTC Venture Center can help you build the business of your future from idea, to launch, to sustainability. Register today!
